

The Florida Association for Theatre Education (FATE) AIDS Outreach Teachers' Mini Grant 2017-2018

This program is designed to provide moderate support for Florida theatre teachers to enable them to implement AIDS awareness projects with their students. It was developed from proceeds received from a silent auction at an annual FATE Conference. The items being auctioned were signed Broadway posters provided by Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS.

Goal:

To support theatre education projects to raise the awareness of AIDS with students and the community.

Grant period and amount for 2017 - 2018

- Application deadline is September 15, 2017
- Project timeline is for November 1, 2017 through May 1, 2018
- Requests may be for amounts up to but no more than $350.00.
- Grants are for the time designated only and are not renewable.
- Grants can be applied for annually following the application process.

Eligibility:

- Applicant must be a Florida theatre educator, pre-K through college level.
- The theatre educator must produce a staged theatrical performance; it may be original.
- The production must be a student/community AIDS outreach program.
- Any data pertaining to the AIDS problem used in the performance must be supported by current research.

How to apply:

- Complete the application form to be found at fatefirst.com.
- Must be typed (needs to be 10 pt. or larger).
- Application will download in Microsoft Word or in a PDF form into which you can type. PLEASE NOTE: unless you have the complete Acrobat program, the PDF form will not save your typed information.
- Be sure all sections are complete and all signatures required are included.
- INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE REVIEWED.

Mail completed forms by the deadline to:

Murray Mintz, Executive Director, FATE
2553 Forest Pkwy S., Largo, FL 33771

Review and notification:

Applications will be reviewed by the FATE Grant Committee. Applicants may expect a response by October 25th. Funds will be released to the applicant's school.

Accountability:

Documentation of expenditures, photo documentation of the production, and a brief final report from the recipient is required. ALL printed materials (posters, programs, etc.). must include the following statement:

This performance has been supported by a grant from the Florida Association for Theatre Education (FATE) in cooperation with Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS.

This grant may be used for:

- Travel
- Productions costs, i.e., royalties, scripts, costumes, props, music, etc.
- Honoraria for guest speaker/artist
- Outreach materials
- Printing

This grant MAY NOT be used for:

- Food
- Stipends of any kind

GO TO WWW.FATEFIRST.COM TO GET THE APPLICATION
Or contact FATE's Executive Director at ExeDirector@fatefirst.com

The Florida Association for Theatre Education (FATE)
AIDS Outreach Mini Grant 2017-2018 Application
Deadline: September 15, 2017

For the application to be considered all lines must be filled out and all information must be typed within the space provided in not smaller than 10 pt. INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE REVIEWED.

Teacher Name _____

Home Address _____

City/Zip _____ Email _____

School Name _____

School Address _____

City/Zip _____

Home telephone _____ School telephone _____

Principal's Name _____

School District Supervisor's Name _____

Grade(s) and subjects(s) taught _____

Educational level attained and college(s) attended _____

Title of the production _____

Theme _____

How many students/community members will this project impact? _____

Grant amount requested (not to exceed $350.00) round off to nearest dollar, no cents _____

Project dates: Beginning _____ Ending _____

The following questions are for FATE survey data only and will not affect your request:

Percentage of students at your school receiving free or reduced lunch _____ %

Total # of students you teach _____

Will parents/guardians be involved in this project? Yes No

Will members of the community be involved in this production? Yes No

Please describe the objective of your production, including a description of your target audience:

Please describe how you will evaluate the completed production:

Please list your itemized budget: (Sources of other funding and in-kind services are encouraged and are to be included)

Applicant Signature _____ Date _____

Principal or District Supervisor Signature _____ Date _____

Deadline: September 15, 2017