

The Florida Association for Theatre Education (FATE) AIDS Outreach Teachers' Mini Grant 2018-2019

This program is designed to provide moderate support for Florida theatre teachers to enable them to implement AIDS awareness projects with their students. It was developed from proceeds received from a silent auction at an annual FATE Conference. The items being auctioned were signed Broadway posters provided by Broadway Cares/Equity Fights AIDS.

Goal:

To support theatre education projects to raise the awareness of AIDS with students and the community.

Grant period and amount for 2018-2019:

- Application deadline is September 15, 2018.
- Project timeline is for November 1, 2018 through May 1, 2019.
- Requests may be for amounts up to but no more than $350.00.
- Grants are for the time designated only and are not renewable.
- Grants can be applied for annually following the application process.

Eligibility:

- Applicant must be a Florida theatre educator, pre-K through college level.
- The theatre educator must produce a staged theatrical performance; it may be original.
- The production must be a student/community AIDS outreach program.
- Any data pertaining to the AIDS problem used in the performance must be supported by current research.

How to apply:

- Complete the application form to be found at www.fatefirst.com.
- Must be typed (needs to be 10 pt. or larger).
- Application will download in Microsoft Word or in a PDF form into which you can type. PLEASE NOTE: unless you have the complete Acrobat program, the PDF form will not save your typed information.
- Be sure all sections are complete and all signatures required are included.
- INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE REVIEWED.

Mail completed forms by the deadline to:

Murray Mintz, Executive Director
FATE
2553 Forest Pkwy S.
Largo, FL 33771

Review and notification:

Applications will be reviewed by the FATE Grant Committee. Applicants may expect a response by October 25th. Funds will be released to the applicant's school.